

SPEAKERS' BUREAU FOR COMMUNITY

One Likely to Be a Result of the Red Cross Roll Call Activities.

A "community speakers' bureau" has been established for the Third Red Cross Roll Call and if the effort is the success that its promoters predict the organization will be made permanent. It will prove a means of securing speakers for any meeting that might be held in the county. It will bring public spirited citizens in all parts of the county who touch with men and women who are able to talk entertainingly and instructively and are willing to serve the community in this way.

Oratory has become a "lost art" in recent years and that fact is widely deplored by older people who insist that there is no way of crystallizing public opinion that is so good as oratory. The splendid service of the Four Minute Men in the world war gave impetus to this movement and when the Third Red Cross Roll Call came along there was such a demand for speaking on the part of the women leaders of that organization that a "community speakers' bureau" was at first considered and now has come into existence.

The first of this series of talks was made at the meeting of the Masonic lodge last night. Tonight there will be short talks at the Elks' lodge, at the Odd Fellows' lodge and M. Levine, of the Union store, will make a talk at the Grand opera house where Lyman Howe's pictures will be shown. Tomorrow night H. E. Engle will speak at the meeting of the Moose lodge. On Thursday J. M. Jacobs will speak at the meeting of the K. of P. lodge. On Thursday Senator W. S. Meredith will speak to the Fairmont Rotary club. On that night O. S. McInney will be heard at the Dixie. H. S. Lively at the Hippodrome and Ernest Bell at the Nelson.

Speakers are being lined up for theatres for the "last half" of the week, as Thursday, Friday and Saturday is styled as showdom, and the Grand comes right in with the others as it has the Columbia Stellar Quartette Friday night when Miss Dora Lee Newman will speak and David Belasco's "Dark Rosaleen" Saturday night when Mrs. Kempe White will speak.

The community speakers will take on the Third Red Cross Roll Call at these meetings. The plan of the organization is to provide speakers on any subject so that meetings can be held which will be in full accord with the local sentiment that prompt them. There will be advocates of "More Work—Less Fooling," advocates of a twelve hour day for mothers with one afternoon off every month instead of the twenty-four hour day they are putting in at present, advocates of real religion in the churches and early revivals, advocates of evening prayer in every home, advocates of "Buy Now" which give the assurance that prices are not going to fall in the near future at least, and advocates of reconstruction who will talk along varied lines. The only kind of speaker that will not be handled by this bureau is the grouchy, the kicker, the fellow that is frightened for fear the world is coming to an end or everything in it going to the bad.

The Benton Ferry organization for the Red Cross Roll Call had been announced with the other county names, it develops, but had been missed in the typewriting of the names. It is as follows:

Mrs. Morgan Stanley (chairman), Miss Eva Wilson, Mrs. Walter Wilt, Walter Wilt and H. L. Clelland.

A meeting was held at Barrackville last night in connection with the Red Cross Roll Call and a meeting will be held Thursday night at the church at Hoult. Mrs. James D. Bowman, chairman at Hoult, was a Fairmont visitor at headquarters yesterday.
